

JUNGLE KIDS
FOR CHRIST
Empowering Children

Job Description for English Teaching Summer Volunteer

- Job Title – English Teaching Summer Volunteer
- Job Summary – Jungle Kids for Christ (JKC) is a growing ministry whose goal is to empower children of the Ecuadorian jungle by sharing the Gospel through education, teaching values, and leadership. We carry out those goals through our different ministries, and one of those is Antioch Christian Academy (ACA). ACA is a private Christian school located in Misahualli, Ecuador, that teaches local Ecuadorian students. As a part of the education, we teach English as a second language and so we are looking for individuals who can support our English teachers and their students during the end of school year time. These highly motivated individuals would help prepare teaching materials, assist students with topics, ensure a quality learning environment, and grow their own skills of teaching. An English teaching assistant also assists with lectures and assignments and may assist the primary instructor with grading tests and papers and tutoring students in various English topics.
- Commitment Length – up to 10 weeks in May, June and July.
- Responsibilities and Duties
 - Go through a short training when arriving in the country to get to know the school, policies, and procedures.
 - Prepare teaching materials alongside the primary teacher.
 - Assist in individual student instruction.
 - Shadow the primary teacher during lectures, lesson planning, etc.
 - Give general instruction and lessons to the entire class.
 - Assist in grading materials like tests and papers.
 - Provide support with short-term teams when they are in the English and other subject classroom, as applicable.
- Qualifications and Skills
 - Must be officially pursuing an English or teaching degree at the university level.
 - Able to arrive and leave on specified dates.
 - Must be at least 18 years of age.
 - Agree with our statement of faith and abide by our code of conduct.
 - Self-motivated worker.
